Aasiya, a 70-year-old woman from Nuh, Haryana, faced the sudden demolition of her home after communal violence in the region. The demolition followed a court order, and her family, who had lived there for three decades, was left homeless. Forced to sleep outside, Aasiya's joint family of fifteen struggled to survive. Miles2Smile Foundation visited multiple times in August, providing rations, blankets, and mattresses. Despite this, more support was needed. A donation campaign raised 2.56 lakh rupees to help rebuild Aasiya's home. Overwhelmed with gratitude, Aasiya, with teary eyes, expressed, "It means the world to me."
