

A Will To Serve

Aaysha, a 45-year-old homemaker, lived with her husband Akbar, a vegetable seller, and their six children in a house on government panchayat land in Nagina Mewat, Haryana. Her husband had worked as a laborer while the children attended a nearby madarsa. Their lives were upended when communal violence in Nuh led to an arbitrary demolition drive, and their home was destroyed. Left homeless and uncertain, Aaysha found temporary shelter in a makeshift camp.

The Miles2Smile Foundation then rebuilt their house, offering much-needed support. Grateful, Aaysha thanked the foundation for helping her regain dignity and stability.
