PATHARKANDI, ASSAM

Two cousins, 17-year-old Amir Uddin and 18-year-old Islam Uddin from Patharkandi in Assam's Sribhumi district, were allegedly attacked on June 1 while searching for their missing cattle in a Bishnupriya Manipuri-majority area. According to their family, the assault followed accusations of cattle theft. They were reportedly beaten with sticks before being shot multiple times, leaving Amir with six and Islam with five gunshot wounds. While the duo was waiting for the medical treatment, their families struggled to arrange money to meet the medical expenses.
