

Rising from the Rubble:

Khurshida's Journey Back to Safety

On August 3, 2023, Khurshida's home in Nalhar, Nuh, was demolished despite a High Court order staying the eviction. Along with other families, Khurshida faced the trauma of losing her home, possessions, and essentials, while some were even taken into custody. Miles2Smile

Foundation launched a fundraising campaign and raised 3 lakh rupees to help Khurshida and her family of 15 rebuild their lives. With the funds, she purchased land to settle securely, free from the fear of future demolitions. Khurshida is now hopeful for further assistance from Miles2Smile in constructing a new home.
