

MILES2SMILE HELPS RABIYA BI REBUILD HER LIFE AFTER HER HUSBAND'S KILLING

RABIYA BI

NORTHEAST DELHI, DELHI

"The shadow of their father has been lifted from my children's heads. How will I raise them alone? I don't even earn," said Rabiya Bi, recalling the day her husband, Umarudeen, was shot dead while trying to protect their son from a mob.

Umarudeen tried to save his son, like a father, but little did he know this would cost him his life. He was shot dead by the perpetrators.

With no steady income and the burden of raising her children alone, Rabiya's days were passed by uncertainty and fear about the future until Miles2Smile met her. The organisation provided assistance to help her start a small livelihood, giving her a means to earn and provide for her children. The support has offered Rabiya a measure of stability, helping her take the first steps toward rebuilding her life after devastating loss.
