

Rebuilding House, Regaining Happiness with Miles2Smile: A Story of Islam Khan

Islam Khan, an elderly survivor of the 2022 Sendhwa violence, lost his home without warning. “The police told us to take our valuables and leave. Then, they demolished everything,” he recalled. The Ram Navami clashes left many Muslim families homeless, including Islam, who stood helpless amid the rubble, asking, “Where will I go?” Moved by his plight, Miles2Smile launched a fundraiser. With generous support, they helped rebuild his home. Overwhelmed with gratitude, Islam expressed, “I don’t know how to describe my happiness.” His story stands as a testament to resilience and the power of collective support in times of despair.
