

Reweaving Hope, Rebuilding Lives after Sendhwa Violence

Jafir Khan, a chauffeur, lost his home during the 2022 Sendhwa violence. While he was away, his family saw a bulldozer outside and asked authorities if their house would be demolished. They were reassured it wouldn't be—but an hour later, it was reduced to rubble. His elderly, diabetic parents were forced to sit in a police van for hours, hungry and thirsty. When Miles2Smile met Jafir, his pain was evident. Determined to help, a fundraiser was launched, and aid was provided. Overcome with gratitude, Jafir wept, his tears reflecting both sorrow and the hope of rebuilding his life.
