

Torn Apart by Violence, Rebuilt by Miles2Smile

During the April 10, 2022, Ram Navami violence in Sendhwa, Niyazi Kausar lost everything. His small shop, his family's sole income source, was looted and destroyed by a mob. Left without a livelihood, he cried, "What will I eat? How will I support my family?"

When Miles2Smile met him, his despair was evident.

Determined to help, they launched a fundraiser. With generous support, Niyazi's shop was rebuilt, restoring not just his business but also his hope. The aid provided him with a fresh start, proving that in the face of destruction, solidarity and kindness can help rebuild lives.
