

A Sanctuary for the Homeless

Parvin, a 40-year-old homemaker, lived with her husband Isab, a truck driver, and their three children in a modest mud house in Nagina Mewat, Haryana. Their peaceful life was disrupted on August 3, 2023, when their house was demolished as part of a government drive following violence in Nuh. The demolition notice was given only two hours before the bulldozing. Left homeless with losses of around 2-2.5 lakh rupees, the family found help from Miles2Smile Foundation. The foundation rebuilt their house, restored their documents, ensured their children's education, and provided essential support, changing their lives for the better.
