

At the Heart of Parveen's Smile Shop, Hope Lives Again

📍 Parveen, Northeast Delhi, Delhi

After her husband Abbas died suddenly, Parveen was left to care for five daughters with no income or support. Hunger and despair filled their days until her story reached Miles2Smile. Understanding she needed more than temporary aid, we helped her open a small ration shop, offering stability and hope.

The shop restored her dignity and routine. Later, we provided a refrigerator so she could expand into dairy products. Today, Parveen stands stronger, with food on the table and peace of mind. Her journey reflects how long-term support can rebuild lives shattered by loss. The amount has been utilized from Zakaat funds raised in the holy month of Ramadaan.
