

Shattered Lives in Khargone: Rashida's Story of Survival

Rashida, a 60-year-old woman from Khargone, stood helpless as a bulldozer destroyed her home and small shop during the violence that erupted on April 10, 2022. The chaos, triggered by clashes between religious processions, led to widespread destruction and a demolition drive targeting Muslim-owned properties.

Rashida's shop, where she sold cold drinks and candies, was her only source of income. With no savings to rebuild, she faced a grim future. Miles2Smile stepped in, raised funds and helped her. "Today I have a roof over my head again, thanks to Miles2Smile," she said, grateful for the support.
