

New Hopes, New Beginning and Bundle of Happiness Underway

Sabit Ali Bahraich, Uttar Pradesh

On October 13, 2024, a violent clash during a Durga idol immersion in Bahraich spiraled into escaping the flames. Miles2Smile visited the devastation—leaving homes burned, vehicles wrecked, listened to Sabit's story, and promised to help. A month later, we returned with an E-rickshaw for Sabit Ali, whose home and family businesses—an E-rickshaw, blanket stall, and cosmetic shop—were reduced to ashes.

His bedridden mother, Sakina (85), was injured while escaping the flames. Miles2Smile visited the devastation—leaving homes burned, vehicles wrecked, listened to Sabit's story, and promised to help. A month later, we returned with an E-rickshaw for Sabit. His smile and tears of gratitude reminded us why we serve. We also supported Akram and Nisa in rebuilding their lost businesses—restoring hope.
