

Punished for being Muslim

For 45-year-old Sadullah Baig, his modest two-bedroom home in Chotti Mohan Talkies, Khargone, was a sanctuary of comfort and security. On April 11, 2022, it was reduced to rubble during an anti-encroachment drive that extended beyond marked zones.

Homeless and devastated, Sadullah questioned how a hardworking man striving to feed his family could be accused of violence

Watching his children wander through the ruins deepened his grief. Miles2Smile extended hope, providing money to help rebuild his home and dreams, offering shelter to his family and a chance to recover from the heartbreak of losing everything.
