

When Hate took away Kids' Home

Salma Bi, a widow from Sanjay Nagar, Khargone, was left devastated after her home was destroyed in a fire sparked by communal clashes on April 10, 2022. With two young children and a mother-in-law to care for, Salma was left homeless and financially helpless, unable to provide a safe place for her children. Tearfully, she expressed her grief:

"Where will I take my kids now?" The fire had ravaged everything, leaving her with nothing. Amidst the chaos and violence, Salma's life turned upside down, and she feared for her children's future, both emotionally and academically. Miles2Smile helped Salma Bi regain her happiness.
