

Livelihood Burned Down

Shahid, a dedicated tailor, lost his livelihood when his shop was burned during the violence in Karauli on April 2, 2022. His tailoring machine, essential to his work and his family's survival, was destroyed in the attack. Devastated, Shahid, who had been relying on his small business to provide for his family, despaired, saying, “How am I going to feed my family now?” Miles2Smile stepped in, raising funds to provide Shahid with Rs. 2 lakh to buy a new machine and renovate his shop. The sight of Shahid, smiling while working on his new machine, was a poignant moment of hope restored.
