Shahida Parveen, known for her vibrant bangle shop, had her livelihood destroyed during the April 2 violence in Karauli. As a crucial source of income for her family, the shop was looted and set on fire by Hindutva vigilantes. Devastated, Shahida watched her only means of sustenance burn to the ground, while her children went hungry. When Miles2Smile visited, they were moved by her plight and raised Rs. 1.5 lakh to help rebuild her shop. With new stock of bangles, Shahida's shop was restored, bringing back the jingles of happiness and hope to her family's life.
