

Crippled Son Stuck

Amidst the Ravages of Bulldozer

Ramadhan 2022 brought tragedy to Sendhwa, Madhya Pradesh, as communal violence erupted during a Ram-Navami procession. Amid the chaos, 46-year-old Shaista was frying samosas when bulldozers arrived to demolish her home. Desperate, she pleaded with police to retrieve her disabled 17-year-old son, but they ignored her cries and pushed her aside. Thankfully, neighbors rescued her son. Left homeless and without resources, Shaista struggled to rebuild. Miles2Smile visited her, witnessing her grief as she recalled the horror. With a meager income, she had no means to recover, embodying the deep scars left by the violence on countless lives.
