

When the Riots Took Away Everything Shayaba Had

📍 Shayaba, Northeast Delhi, Delhi

The 2020 Delhi riots devastated Shayaba's life when her husband was lynched. Left to raise three children, she later lost her in-laws in a house collapse. Suddenly responsible for two families, she returned to her damaged home with no resources. Miles2Smile stepped in, supporting her children's education, repairing her house, and providing essentials. The help brought relief amidst her grief. Miles2Smile stepped in—supporting her children's education, repairing her house, and providing essential items. Though the tragedies left lasting scars, Shayaba found hope in compassion. The amount has been utilized from Zakaat funds raised in the holy month of Ramadaan.
