

Miles2Smile Helps Mandla Families Rebuild Lives After Sudden Demolitions

📍 Sultana Bi, Mandla, Madhya Pradesh

In June 2024, bulldozers tore through 14 Muslim homes in Mandla, Madhya Pradesh, without warning or legal notice. Authorities cited alleged cow smuggling, yet families denied any wrongdoing. Among them was Sultana Bi, awakened by neighbors' cries as her world collapsed in minutes.

Her home, filled with memories, was reduced to rubble. "Where will we go now?" she asked, her pain haunting us. Back in Delhi, we rallied support, raising funds to rebuild her life. When we handed over the aid, her tears turned into hope. "I thought we were alone," she said, "but no, you stood by us."
