

A Shop in Ruins, but Hope Restored: Waheed Khan's New Beginning

In April 2022, Karauli, Rajasthan, witnessed a brutal wave of violence, allegedly orchestrated by Hindutva groups like Vishwa Hindu Parishad, Bajrang Dal, and RSS. The violence erupted under the guise of Nav Samvatsar, the Hindu New Year, when mobs marched through Muslim areas, chanting inflammatory slogans. Shakir Waheed Khan, whose family had run a shop for 48 years, lost everything when a mob ransacked and set it on fire. Devastated, he sobbed, “How will I work now? What will I eat?” Seeing his plight, Miles2Smile stepped in, raising funds to restore his livelihood. Waheed’s joy upon receiving help was beyond words: “I can't express how happy I am.”
