

A New Beginning for Wasim Sheikh, Survivor of Khargone Violence 2022

Wasim Sheikh, an amputee from Khargone, lost his livelihood during the communal violence that erupted in 2022. The violence, sparked by clashes during Ram Navami, led to widespread destruction, including a demolition drive by authorities. Despite his disabilities, which limit his ability to work in many fields, Wasim was left devastated, fearing he would never earn again. "Where will I go now? How will I run my family?" he asked with tears. Miles2Smile stepped in, raising funds to help Wasim rebuild his shop. With the support, Wasim reopened his business, expressing gratitude, "It's like a dream come true."
