

A Merciless Demolition, A Stationery Shop and Everlasting Smiles with Miles2Smile

📍 Zakir Sahab, Mehrauli, Delhi

On January 30, 2024, the centuries-old Akhunji Masjid and the adjacent Madrasa Bahrul Uloom in Mehrauli, Delhi, were demolished by the DDA, displacing 25 students and Imam Zakir Sahab. Miles2Smile immediately stepped in, relocating them to Kalan Mahal and ensuring their education and basic needs.

Imam Zakir, having lost his livelihood, took up a Rapido job but aspired to open a stationery shop. Seeing his dedication, Miles2Smile, helped him set up a fully stocked shop. Today, he works with hope, supporting young learners and rebuilding his life with dignity. The amount has been utilized from Zakaat funds raised in the holy month of Ramadaan.
